PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEY JODIE L. RYAN APPOINTED TO FAIRPORT BAPTIST HOMES FOUNDATION BOARD

ROCHESTER, NY – Jodie L. Ryan, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, was appointed to a three-year term on the board of directors for the Fairport Baptist Homes Caring Ministries Foundation.

Founded a century ago, Fairport Baptist Homes Caring Ministries is a provider of senior housing, skilled nursing care, Alzheimer's care and other supportive services to seniors and their families in the Fairport area.

At Phillips Lytle, Ms. Ryan concentrates her practice in the area of civil and commercial litigation with emphasis on personal injury, products liability, labor law, professional malpractice and construction litigation. She earned her J.D. from Albany Law School of Union University and her B.A., cum laude, from University at Buffalo. A member of the American, New York State and Monroe County Bar Associations, Ms. Ryan is also involved with the Greater Rochester Association of Women Attorneys, the Rochester Emerging Bar Leaders and the Rochester Women's Network.

*Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
