PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEY TIMOTHY W. HOOVER PARTICIPATES IN U.S. SUPREME COURT REVIEW AND PREVIEW SEMINAR

BUFFALO, NY – Timothy W. Hoover, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, served as a moderator for a recent presentation titled "U.S. Supreme Court Review and Preview, October 2008-October 2009 Terms." Mr. Hoover moderated the criminal law portion of the presentation.

The event, presented by Erie Institute of Law, provided participants with a review of key decisions from the U.S. Supreme Court's 2008 term in criminal law and the rights of criminal defendants, federal procedure, employment discrimination, civil rights and federal pre-emption of state law claims as well as a discussion of pending cases in the current October 2009 term before the U.S. Supreme Court.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Hoover concentrates his practice in the areas of civil litigation in state and federal courts, white collar criminal defense, government investigations and internal investigations. He earned his J.D., Order of the Coif, Vanderbilt University School of Law and his B.A., With High Honor, from Michigan State University. A member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations, Mr. Hoover serves on the board of trustees for WNED and as a board member with Neighborhood Legal Services.

Phillips Lytle LLP is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
