Phillips Lytle continues to make significant advancements in its growth plan

Buffalo, N.Y. — Phillips Lytle LLP announced it has added 16 attorneys across five of its office locations, as the firm continues to succeed in following its strategic growth plan. These additions bolster Phillips Lytle's teams in the Buffalo, Rochester, Albany, New York City and Chicago markets and add depth to each of the firm's five practice groups, which include Corporate, Banking and Financial Services, Litigation, Trusts and Estates, and Land, Environment and Energy.

"We are thrilled to welcome these 16 attorneys to Phillips Lytle," said Douglas W. Dimitroff, Managing Partner for Phillips Lytle. "They bring a wealth of knowledge and diverse perspectives across each of the firm's practices and industries, allowing us to continue delivering the highest level of service that our clients have come to expect."

New attorneys, listed alphabetically alongside their title and practice group, include:
