Phillips Lytle hosts summit on college campus sex assault on August 24, 2015 - 6:31 PM

Attorney Ernie Allen, the founder and long time president and CEO of the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children and the International Centre for Missing & Exploited Children, will be the keynote speaker at a summit on preventing and responding to sexual misconduct on college and university campuses. It will be held 7:45 a.m. to noon Thursday at the Phillips Lytle LLP's offices, 125 Main Street.

Allen, a leading global expert on child abduction, sexual exploitation and human trafficking will speak on how schools can respond better to sexual violence incidents on campus.

The summit is open to and recommended for leaders in higher education. To register, go to phillipslytle.com/registration.
